TARA LYNN STEELE

She/Her

Represented by: YOU Management

Summary

As a storyteller I have a curious mind and need to create, which has led me to becoming a published author, receiving my MBA, and successfully growing 2 businesses, while also fostering my many creative interests and pursuing performing and choreography simultaneously. I believe “Only those who are willing to fail are the dangers and splendors of life.”—Carl Sandburg

My recent project was Producing and Choreographing a new work:
On the Brink: The Music of Nick Guerrero
